Extract from the Staff Meeting Minutes of 23 May 1980:

McMahon called attention to Agee's recent edition of the Covert Action Information Bulletin and urged that we "keep the heat on" re Identities Legislation. In a brief discussion which followed, Mr. Carlucci asked [] to look into the potential value of providing a damage assessment re the Bulletin to certain Congressional Committee members, e.g., Senators Chafee, Jackson, and Moynihan; he added that we should be ready to take advantage of any opportunity in this regard.
